Weekly Update

in case you missed something

COMMITTEES AT WORK:

President Teri had tables set with committee signs. Following our lunch of soup and salad, we got down to work on our 2018 plans.

PUBLICIZING PROJECTS:

Publicity for all project will be coordinated through our Publicity Committee. A fillable form will be emailed to you later this week to help us to coordinate and take advantage of all forms of publicity. Robie and Deb are on top of this "techy" stuff, so be sure to take advantage of their expertise.

TRILOGY WOMEN'S GOLF BENEFITS US!

In April, the Trilogy Women's Golf Tournament will benefit Soroptimist of Rio Vista educational programs in a big way. Have a business in town? Think about being a hole sponsor. A group of us from our club can sponsor a hole too. Sponsorship forms will be here next week. Do we have a foursome? Dust off your clubs and see Lupe Finch of sign up.

GREETERS... SIGN UP NOW

Be a greeter at the door at beginning of our weekly meetings. Don't be shy... this is a great way to meet people... or have members meet you. Sign-up sheet going around at meetings.

LETS HAVE FUN!

FINDING NETHERLAND, a fabulous musical $52., Tier 2 - good seats! Playing in Sacramento 4/14

MANIA, playing in Lodi 2/17, $34.

BRING A MAGAZINE THIS WEEK

We are making "Dream Boards" to take to the District Conference in February and need magazine pictures. Grab those old magazines and bring them to help us out.

PRINCESS BALL FEB. 10th

This is a Lion's Club event and we coordinate with them to help with decorations and dinner service. This charming event brings fathers and daughters together for a prom-like event. It is over-the-top cute: fancy dresses, corsages, dancing and everyone is thrilled to have this special night together. Building self-esteem, strong family relationships, social confidence and tons more. Please sign up to help. It's only a couple hours and it's fun!

THIS WEEK'S MEETING --

Jess Torrecampo is the Bureau Chief with Calif. Dept. of Social Services, leading the department's efforts for Continuum of Care Reform. which strives to ensure services for foster youth and families. After graduating as valedictorian from Rio Vista High School in 2006, Jess received a Bachelor's degree in Government from California State University Sacramento and holds a Master's degree in International Public Policy. Jess is the daughter of Pat Dyer... our dedicated Treasurer. Yea Pat!!
