PROGRAM: FOSTER CARE CALIFORNIA

We had a dynamic and well informed speaker, representative of what today's young professionals bring to state government. Jess Torrecampo, Bureau Chief with California Dept. of Social Services talked about foster care services as orchestrated from the highest level of state government. Thanks to Pat Dyer for bringing her daughter and grandson to inspire us.

FEB 10th KITCHEN HELP NEEDED

The upcoming Princess Ball is one of the most charming events in Rio Vista. We help out Lion's Club by serving up dinner. No cooking require -- just serving. Please sign up to help 5:30 - 7PM. It's fun, it's rewarding. Hope Cohn is the coordinator.

LUNAFEST - TICKETS AVAILABLE

Tickets for Lunafest are available at Books RioV, Pets 4 All and online too. This amazing film festival is an inspiration and you will love your Soroptimist group for putting it on.

Awesome! Tickets for members: $25. Tickets for all others: $35.

Volunteers needed to set-up, clean-up and ticket taking. If you attend the showing however, you must buy a ticket. Monica Awender is volunteer coordinator. Dorothy Fest is the ticket lady...and she will hunt you down if you don't sign on the sign-up sheet :)

RVHS STUDENT OF THE MONTH

Sam (+ long Italian last name) is our high school student of the month from the Graphic Arts Department. Teacher Julie Griffin accompanied him. Sam is from a small town just north of Milan, Italy and will be here throughout the school year. He loves sports, sciences, and speaks excellent English. He will attend another year of high school upon his return to Italy, then plans on university studies in Japan.

BRING A MAGAZINE NEXT TIME

We are making "Dream Boards" to take to the District Conference in February and need magazine pictures. Put your old magazines in your car and bring them to our Feb. 1st business meeting.

NO MEETING ON THE 25th

As we meet only three times a month, there is no meeting this coming Thursday. Plan on Feb. 1st for our next business meeting. Committee reports are due.

Jesse Torrecampos, our speaker, with little Zander and Grandma Pat.
