Weekly Update

in case you missed something

---

WHOO AWARD TO DEBRA

Whoo is more deserving of this award than Debra Spinardi, our own special events director and creator of all things beautiful. Deb worked tirelessly to make Lunafest an amazing and profitable event last month. Thank you Debra for being our creative leader.

MONTHLY BUSINESS MEETING

Committee Highlights:

- Super Members of the Fundraising Committee raised over $16,000. this year from events, the most this club has ever raised! In addition. Turkey Trot and Bingo added another $6000. targeted for specific activities. Overall, nearly $22,000. for SIRV
- Education Committee - preparing for May 16th Academic Awards Night at RVHS. All members are encouraged to attend. We have 25 applications for scholarships this year. April 19th we will host 2 Students of the Month for lunch
- Women's Rights - Participated in the successful Health Fair at Trilogy. Kay Kelly will be taking her excellent program on Human Trafficking to the Calistoga Soroptimist Club in June. All other committees dutifully reported too, and we appreciate their work. Committee binders are due in May.

BARBARA AND VICKY - FELLOWS!

Our dear Barbara Rodriguez, a 44 yr. member of SIRV (1974) received a Fellowship Pin a few years ago. As she will be moving to Lodi soon, she elected to pass on her Fellowship pin to Vicky Dolk, her dear and long time friend. Vicky was surprised and very deserving of this generous award. Congratulations Vicky!

FOUNDER REGION CONFERENCE

Upcoming conference is May 4 - 6 in San Ramon. Though it is 3 days, many members attend just one event. Think about this:

- Friday Dinner - Fellowship Awards are given to deserving young women. An inspiring evening. $70.
  - Sunday Brunch - Live Your Dream recipients tell their heartfelt stories and receive awards. $35. Sign up on roster next week and pay fees for meals.
