

Weekly Update February 13, 2020

The meeting opened with a visit and check presentation from Lions Club Treasurer, Warren Oglove. The $200.00 donation was a thank you for all the support we have given to the Princess Ball in the past, and to our members who help this year. Thank you, Hope Cohn, for helping the Lions Club.

Wanda Apel Was the winner of our Fellowship Drawing. Congratulations Wanda, you deserve this most prestigious award. Wanda will receive her pin at our next meeting.

Please don't miss next week's meeting. Our District Director Joy Swank will be visiting our club.

"Dirty Pour" Painting on 3/26/20 at 5 pm, has 5 spots remaining. Please use the following link to save your spot:

Our Birthday Party

A big thank you to Connie Romweber, Donna Kiecker, and Lupe Finch for a fantastic 64th Birthday Party. We played put the pin on the president, had a beautiful cake decorated by Connie, sang Happy Birthday and had a really great time.

Committee Reports

Gayle Crawley, Chair of Women's Rights Committee, shared the contents of our survival bags to show the members just how important our bags are for women in need.

Dream It Be It Conference- March 14

The Education Committee is still looking for 2 facilitators to help at the Dream It Be It Conference. The Doodle Poll is almost full. If you still want to help, the committee can always use extra hands at the event.

Fundraising is gearing up for LunaFest. They now have 4 donated hand bags for the event. Be on the look out for a Doodle Poll from this committee to help with LunaFest. Stacia also asked for the club's support for our Meat/Freezer opportunity drawing again. The club agreed to support and selling tickets can start earlier this year.

Publicity

Publicity reminded all committees that if you want something put in the paper or publicized, you are asked to fill out the Publicity form that is on the website.
